The Committee to Free

TONY EGBUNA FORD

A PEACEFUL ACTIVIST, ARTIST & THINKER ON DEATH ROW!

An innocent man is about to be murdered.

We know the date. We know the time. We know the location this crime will occur.

Now imagine this man was someone you knew. Someone you loved. Does this knowledge make you want to act? Does it make you want to prevent this crime?

This innocent man is my husband, Tony Egbuna Ford.

My husband has a scheduled time and date for his murder. He knows when his killers will come and lead him to his death. He knows how they will kill him. He knows the routine his last day on this earth will follow. He knows when he will die. But there is no police department he can call who will come to save him. He can only call out to you.

My husband has been incarcerated on Texas Death Row for 13 years. He has been caged in a cell barely large enough to fit a bed in for 23 hours a day, 7 days a week, for 13 years. He has experienced being shunned by society. He has experienced the brutality of the guards that cage him. He has experienced the pain of being separated from all he knows and loves. And he is innocent. INNOCENT.

Tony Egbuna Ford is scheduled to die March 14th 2006 at 6.00pm. He is scheduled to die for a crime which he did not commit. He was scheduled to die by a judge who saw the verdict of Guilty on his file, and believed justice was being served. A judge who did not take the time to learn that he was convicted by a jury who were not allowed to hear the truth. A jury who were denied the facts. A jury who were not allowed to hear expert testimony which could have exposed the truth. A jury who were judging based on distorted information.

On November 29th 2005 Tony's first scheduled execution date of December 7th 2005, was stayed for 90 days for DNA testing - testing of the clothing of the true perpetrator. Testing that has been denied consistently ever since his arrest 14 years ago. Yes this is a cause for celebration. Surely you say, justice will now be served? Would you feel so confident about that if justice had been denied your loved one for 14 years? If evidence which could have exonerated him, had been held from his attorneys for 14 years? Would you trust this same system to now let the truth be shown? Would you feel able to relax and let the authorities from the same state that sentenced your innocent husband to death, now disclose the truth? Or would you still be mistrustful? Would you still resolve to fight?

I pray that justice will be served. I pray that the truth will be given light. I pray this one judge will do the right thing. Because I cannot call any police department to save my husband's life to ensure that the verdict is just.

I can only call out to you. Please do not turn your back. I need your help. Tony needs your help and time is short. Please contact me via e-mail: (Tony_Egbuna_Ford@yahoo.com), or call one of the above numbers to communicate and find ways together in building support to save an innocent man, my husband Tony Egbuna Ford.

Justice for all.
