

DEATHS IN CUSTODY

Saturday 26 October 2019 Assemble at 12:00 @ Trafalgar Square

NO MORE STATE KILLINGS

The United Families and Friends Campaign (UFFC) was set up in 1997 by families who had lost loved ones at the hands of the state to challenge the injustice in the system. It began as a network of black families because disproportionate numbers of black people were dying in police custody. It is now grown as a group that supports all families of the victims of custodial deaths at the hands of police officer, prison officers or in secure medical units.

Since 1999 UFFC has held an annual procession from Trafalgar Square to Downing Street to remember loved ones who have died in custody. The UFFC network includes the families of: Leon Patterson, Roger Sylvester, Rocky Bennett, Harry Stanley, Sean Rigg, Habib 'Paps' Ullah, Azelle Rodney, Christopher Alder, Brian Douglas, Joy Gardner, Paul Jemmott, Derek Bennett, Ricky Bishop, Mikey Powell, Jason McPherson, Sarah Campbell, Jimmy Mubenga, Paul Coker, Mark Duggan, Olaseni Lewis, James Herbert, Kingsley Burrell, Thomas Orchard, Sheku Bayoh, Amy El-Keria, Darren Neville, Jason McDonald, Philmore Mills, Mzee Mohammed, Adrian McDonald, Rashan Charles, Edson Da Costa, Marc Cole, Junior Leroy Medford, Kishni Mahay, Cameron Whelan, Winston Augustine, Yassar Yaqub, Komang Jack Susianta and many others. We believe:

- That failure of State officials to ensure the basic right to life is made worse by the failure of the State to prosecute those responsible for custody deaths.
- That failure to prosecute those responsible for deaths in custody sends the message that the State can act with impunity.
